Amended by G. N., H. D., No. S.D. 1042 (N), dated 21st November 1951.

Amended by G. N., H. D., No. S.D. 1042 (N)-II, dated 1st October 1952.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the Preventive Detention Act, 1950 (IV of 1950), and in supersession of Government Order, Home Department (Political), No. S.D. III/1042(E), dated the 22nd May 1950, the Government of Bombay is pleased to make the following order :—

Preliminary.

1. This Order may be called the Bombay Conditions of Detention Order, 1951.
2. It shall come into force from 27th February 1951.

3. In this Order, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Act" means the Preventive Detention Act, 1950;

(b) "Civil Surgeon" means the Civil Surgeon of the district in which the security prisoner is detained;

(c) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Police, Greater Bombay;

(d) "Detaining authority" means Government or any Officer specified in sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Act;

(e) "District Magistrate" means the District Magistrate or the Additional District Magistrate of the district in which the security prisoner is detained;

(f) "Government" means the Government of Bombay;

(g) "Presidency Surgeon" means the Presidency Surgeon, Bombay;

(h) "Security prisoner" means a person with respect to whom a detention Order is made by the State Government or an officer subordinate to it under the Preventive Detention Act, 1950;

(i) "Superintendent" means (1) in the case of a security prisoner detained in a police lock-up, the Superintendent of Police of the district in which the security prisoner is detained, and (2) in the case of a security prisoner detained in a jail or sub-jail, the person in charge of the jail or sub-jail in which the security prisoner is detained.

Place of detention.

4. A security prisoner shall be detained in a jail or a sub-jail or a police lock-up.

Classification.

5. (i) Security prisoners detained in a jail or a sub-jail shall be divided into two classes, namely, Class I and Class II. Classes shall be given to a security prisoner according to the state of his health, education, status and mode of living. A security prisoner detained in a police lock-up shall be treated as an undertrial prisoner.

(ii) The classification of each security prisoner shall be made by the detaining authority in accordance with the principles specified in sub-rule (i).

Accommodation.

6. Where a security prisoner is detained in a jail or a sub-jail, he shall be kept in a cell or association ward.

7. Security prisoners shall be allowed to communicate with each other provided that the Superintendent or the Commissioner may, if he considers it desirable to do so on the ground of the health of the prisoner or for any other reason, confine such security prisoner separately. Security prisoners shall, as far as possible, be kept separate from other kinds of prisoners. Security prisoners of one class shall, as far as possible, be kept separate from those of the other class.

Clothing.

8. Security prisoners may be allowed to use their own clothes and bedding. The Superintendent or the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit the supply of extra clothes and bedding to a security prisoner by his friends or relatives or at his own expense. In cases where security prisoners have not sufficient clothing of their own and have neither funds to buy it with, nor friends or relatives to supply it, they may be supplied with clothing at Government cost, on the scales mentioned below. The pattern of this clothing shall be different from that for convicts and the cloth shall be without the jail regulation stripes :—

Note (3).—The quantities of rice and wheat for a security prisoner in a jail situated in a non-rationed area shall be equal to those issued to an individual in the nearest town in which rationing of food-grains is in force, and for a security prisoner kept in a jail situated in a rationed area be equal to quantities issued to an individual in such area. The balance of the ration shall be given in coarse grains. The quantities of rice and wheat shall not be in addition to the diet scale prescribed in paragraph 1 of this sub-clause for Class II security prisoners (i.e., the same scale as that prescribed for Class II convicts), but shall form part of the total ration quantum available to Class II security prisoners.

(ii) Security prisoner detained in a police lock-up shall be given diet on the scale prescribed for undertrial prisoners in police lock-ups.

(iii) Security prisoners may also be allowed to supplement their diet at their own expense. Any security prisoner who wishes to supplement his diet and who is unable to do so at his own expense may apply to the Superintendent or the Commissioner as the case may be. The Superintendent or the Commissioner shall get him examined by a medical officer attached to the place of detention who may order such modification of, or addition to, his diet, as he may consider necessary on medical grounds.

(iv) When the supplementary diet for a security prisoner comes from his friends or relatives in kind, it shall be subject to search by such police or jail officer as may be authorised in this behalf by the Superintendent or the Commissioner, and the cost of such diet shall not be deducted from the allowance to which a security prisoner is entitled to receive under clause 10.

(v) Each security prisoner shall be given ¼ oz. of tea daily.

Supply of funds.

10. (i) A security prisoner may, with the previous sanction of the detaining authority, receive from a specified relative or friend, at intervals of not less than a month, funds not exceeding Rs. 20 per month if he is a Class I security prisoner and Rs. 10 per month if he is a Class II security prisoner and may spend those funds or a similar sum from his own private funds on such objects and in such manner as may be permissible under the rules. In cases in which for want of funds any security prisoners are compelled to do without small amenities which their fellow prisoners enjoy, such amenities may, if considered absolutely necessary by the Commissioner or the Superintendent, be supplied to them at Government cost.

(ii) All funds so received shall be kept by the Commissioner or the Superintendent and spent by him on behalf of the security prisoners concerned.

(iii) Amounts in excess of those prescribed in sub-clause (i) may be received by the Commissioner or the Superintendent on behalf of security prisoners; but they shall not be spent in any month beyond the limits laid down in the said sub-clause.

Tasks.

11. Security prisoners may be assigned tasks by the Commissioner or the Superintendent with due regard to their state of health, physical and mental capacity. character and antecedents and may receive remuneration for their labour at such rates as may be prescribed by the Inspector General of Prisons, State of Bombay,

Searches.

12. Security prisoners and the rooms, wards or cells in which they are accommodated shall be searched not less than once a week, but may be searched oftener or at any time if the Commissioner or the Superintendent considers it necessary. A security prisoner shall also be searched immediately after admission and thereafter before and after every interview with any person other than a police officer. Special precautions shall be taken to make the searches thorough and the fact that the search has been made shall be noted in the report book of the officer making the search. The search shall be made by a Jailor. Deputy Jailor, Jail Guard or such other officer as may be authorised in this behalf by the Commissioner or the Superintendent.

Interviews.

13. (i) Except on the written order of the Commissioner or the Superintendent no security prisoner shall be permitted to have an interview with any person other than a police officer.

(ii) The number of interviews shall not ordinarily exceed, in the case of a Class I security prisoner, one per fortnight, and in the case of a Class II security prisoner, one per month.

(iii) Not more than three-visitors shall be allowed to remain present simultaneously at any one interview, except in the case of near relatives when the number may be increased to five.

(iv) Applications for interviews from persons other than police officers shall as far as possible, be made to the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, in the Form A appended hereto. The Commissioner or the Superintendent shall be competent, subject to any special directions that may be issued by Government, to allow or refuse an interview.

(v) When an interview is refused the fact shall be reported by the Commissioner to Government and by the Superintendent to the District Magistrate. The District Magistrate, on receiving the report, may, if he considers it proper, sanction an interview which has been refused.

(vi) The Superintendent shall appoint the time, place and duration of each interview, and shall not ordinarily allow an interview to continue for more than one hour with a near relative or half an hour with a person other than a near relative.

(vii) Every interview shall take place in the presence and within the hearing of an officer attached to the place of detention or a police officer who may terminate it at any time, if in his opinion the conversation is detrimental to the public interest or safety.

(viii) after the interview is over or terminated, the officer present at the interview shall warn both the security prisoner and the visitor that future interviews are liable to be prohibited if the visitor indulges in any publicity on behalf of the security prisoner.

(ix) The Commissioner or the Superintendent may, for special reasons, permits additional interviews in excess of the number permissible under sub-clause (ii).

(x) In addition to the interviews permissible under the preceding provisions of this clause, a security prisoner, may, with the permission of the detaining authority interview his legal adviser in connection with a pending or contemplated proceeding in a Court of Law to which the security prisoner is or will be a party. Not more than one such interview shall ordinarly be allowed in connection with a contemplated legal proceeding before the proceeding is instituted. All such interviews shall take place on the premises in which the security prisoner is confined and shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Commissioner or the Superintendent may consider necessary to ensure security and prevent the passing of unauthorised communications unconnected with the case relating to which the interview is granted. Such an interview shall take place within sight but not within hearing range of a Jail Official. No police officer shall be present, either within sight or within hearing range, at the interview.

(xi) In addition to the interviews permissible under the preceding provisions of this clause, a security prisoner may, with the permission of the detaining authority be granted not more than two special interviews for the settlement of his business or professional affairs. Such interviews shall ordinarily take place within a period not exceeding two months from the date of detention of the security prisoner concerned and shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this clause as regards place, duration and conditions of the interview, and the proceedings shall be strictly confined to the objects for which the interview is granted.

(xii) In addition to the interviews permissible under the preceding provisions of this clause, a security prisoner who wishes to stand as a candidate for any election to Parliament or State Legislature shall be allowed bi-weekly interviews with his election agent up to the date fixed for taking the poll and the Superintendent may, subject to any special or general orders of Government, allow any additional interviews to the security prisoner with his election agent, for the purposes of his candidature at the election.

(xiii) In addition to the interviews permissible under the preceding provisions of this clause, a security prisoner shall, if he so desires, be allowed to have interviews with a legal practitioner or any other person of his choice and at his cost for the purpose of drafting a representation under section 7 of the Act. Such interviews shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this clause as regards place, duration and conditions of the interview, and the proceedings shall be strictly confined to the object for which the interview is granted.

Police interviews, photographs and finger prints.

14. (i) The detaining authority may by general or special order authorise any police officer or officers either singly or jointly to interview a security prisoner. Such police officer or officers may be accompanied by subordinate police officers if the Commissioner or the Superintendent so directs.

(ii) While visiting any room cell or ward, every police officer shall be accompanied by such escort as the Commissioner or the Superintendent considers necessary for his safety. The escort shall, if the police officer so requires, stand out of earshot, but within sight, while he is speaking to a security prisoner.

(iii) The police officer or officers so authorised may, with the permission of the Commissioner or the Superintendent, interview a security prisoner in the ordinary interview room, without any officer attached to the place of detention being present.

(iv) The Commissioner or the Superintendent or any police officer authorised by him in this behalf may take photographs, register the finger prints and take specimens of the signature and handwriting of a security prisoner.

Books and Newspapers.

15. Security prisoners may be allowed to read books and periodicals which are available in the library, if any, attached to the place of detention.

16. (i) Class I security prisoners may be allowed at Government expense one weekly newspaper for every 20, and one daily newspaper for every 15 security prisoners, out of the list of newspapers considered suitable for convicts of Class I and Class II. Class II security prisoners may be allowed one such weekly newspaper for every 40, and one such daily newspaper for every 20 security prisoners. Both Class I and Class II security prisoners may be allowed, at their cost, any other weekly or daily newspapers included in the said list; provided that if any security prisoner wants any newspaper not included in the said list, he shall obtain the orders of Government through the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be.

(ii) Books (including periodicals not treated as newspapers) may be received by the security prisoners through the post subject to the condition that the postal article containing the books shall first be opened by the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, or any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the delivery of such book to the security prisoner shall be refused by the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, if in his opinion it is not suitable.

Correspondence and censorship.

17. (i) Security prisoners shall ordinarily be permitted to write two and receive four letters per week. Extra letters and telegrams may be allowed when necessary by the Commissioner or the Superintendent in his discretion.

(ii) A security prisoner may be allowed to correspond with another security prisoner in another place of detention on condition that such correspondence is limited to personal and private matters.

(iii) All letters to and from security prisoners shall be censored by the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be. If in the opinion of the Commissioner or the Superintendent, the despatch or delivery of any letter is likely to be detrimental to the public interest or safety or the discipline of the place of detention, he shall either withhold such letter, or despatch or deliver it after deleting any objectionable portion therefrom. In respect of censoring of letters of security prisoners, the Commissioner or the Superintendent shall comply with any general or special instructions issued by Government.

(iv) Every letter forwarded to or from any prisoner shall be initialled and dated by the officer who handled the letter.

(v) The receipt and despatch of telegrams by security prisoners shall be subject to the same control as is hereinbefore provided for letters except that the number of telegrams which may be despatched by security prisoners shall be within the discretion of the Commissioner or the Superintendent.

(vi) In all cases in which a letter or a telegram is withheld, the security prisoner shall be informed of the fact of such withholding.

(vii) When the telegram is to or from Government, it shall be forwarded direct provided that if the telegram is to or from the Central Government, it shall be sent through the Government of Bombay.

(viii) Security prisoners shall attach to all their outgoing letters and telegrams a slip containing the full name and address and relationship of the addressee and of such person mentioned in the letter or telegram.

(ix) The Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, shall have discretion to decide in the case of a petition submitted in telegraphic form whether it should be forwarded by telegraph or by post.

17A. Notwithstanding anything contained in clause 17, communications between a detenu who is a member of the Parliament or of the Legislature of a State and the Chairman of the Council of States, the Speaker of the House of the People, the Chairman of the Legislative Council of a State or the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of a State or the Chairman of a Committee of Privileges of any of the Houses of the Parliament or the Legislature of a State shall not be withheld but shall be transmitted to such detenu or such Chairman or Speaker, as the case may be, if such communications relate to the powers, privileges and immunities of the detenu in his capacity as a member of the Parliament or the Legislature of a State. Any question which such detenu wishes to be asked in the Parliament or the Legislature of a State shall also be transmitted to the Chairman or the Speaker concerned

Provided that if any detenu has not made or subscribed an oath or affirmation as required by the Constitution and has not taken his seat in the Parliament or the Legislature of a State that fact shall be brought to the notice of the Chairman or the Speaker, as the case may be, while transmitting to him any such communication or question from such detenu.

18. (i) The Commissioner or the Superintendent shall forward, without delay through the Inspector General of Prisons, State of Bombay, with such observations as he may think fit, any representation which a security prisoner may submit to Government.

(ii) All petitions from security prisoners addressed to Courts shall be transmitted with the utmost expedition. The Superintendent, where the place of detention is a jail, shall forward such petitions direct to the Court concerned and forward copies thereof to the Inspector General of Prisons. Where the place of detention is a sub-jail or a police lock-up, the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, shall send such petitions to the Inspector General of Prisons who shall forward them to the Court concerned after keeping copies thereof. When a petition is addressed to the High Court, it shall be sent to the Registrar, High Court, Appellate Side, Bombay, in a sealed envelope. The Inspector General of Prisons shall forward copies of such petitions to Government whenever he considers it necessary to do so.

Discipline and punishment for breaches of discipline.

19. Security prisoners shall, for the purposes of discipline and punishment for breaches of discipline, be subject, as if they were convicted criminal prisoners, to the provisions of the Prisons Act, 1894 (Act IX of 1894), and the rules in the Bombay Jail Manual in so far as they are not inconsistent with these conditions or any special orders passed by a competent authority in this behalf.

Medical Attendance.

20. (i) The Presidency Surgeon or the Civil Surgeon, as the case may be, shall depute a Medical Officer to visit each security prisoner detained in a police lock-up and report on his physical condition. The said Medical Officer shall visit the prisoner at least once a week and more often if the Presidency Surgeon or the Civil Surgeon or the Commissioner or the Superintendent, as the case may be, thinks fit, and submit a report on his condition to the Commissioner or the District Magistrate as the case may be, after the first day of each month and at any other time he considers necessary.

(ii) Security prisoners detained in a jail or sub-jail, shall, in the event of illness be treated in the same way as convicted criminal prisoners are treated under the rules prescribed in the Bombay Jail Manual.
